Brown Bears Dominate Nazareth Golden Flyers in Liberty Conference 7's Opener

Brown Men's Rugby showcased a superb start to the Liberty Rugby Conference 7's tournament by securing a 40-0 victory against the Nazareth College Golden Flyers. The Brown Bears lived up to their reputation as a powerhouse with a commanding display at Fairfield University's Barlow Field.

Tries were delivered by a chorus of players, exemplifying the team's strength and depth of talent. Tito Edjua tallied 2 tries, while JT Dyer, Kenyon Graham, Max O'Donahue, and Cameron McAlpine each added tries to the board. The accurate kicking of Raphael Lansonneur, securing 5 conversions, effectively compounded the Bears' lead to secure the 40-point victory.

The weather, which was cool, misty, and windy, did not dampen the Bears' spirits nor their performance. Energized by their victory, the Bears now look ahead to their next challenge.

Brown's next game is set to take place on Fairfield University's Barlow Field, where they will face Dartmouth. The Brown Bears are determined to ride the momentum from this victory into their upcoming match to continue their winning start on the path to Liberty Conference glory.

Brown Men's Rugby Triumphs Over Dartmouth in Second Match of Liberty 7's Tournament

Brown Rugby secured a victory against Dartmouth in a thrilling second match of the Liberty Conference 7's tournament.

The match, held at Fairfield University's Barlow Field, saw the Bears facing a challenge early from the Dartmouth Big Green in cool, misty, and windy conditions.

Dartmouth scored first, just over a minute into the match, but the Bears were able to answer and at halftime, held a narrow lead with a score of 7 to Dartmouth's 5. However, it was in the second half that Brown's determination shone. During a pivotal moment when the team was a man down with JT Dyer sidelined due to a yellow card, they managed to secure a try, a testament to their resilience and adaptability.

The personal triumphs of players like Cameron McAlpine and Tito Edjua stood out as they each tallied up two tries, contributing significantly to Brown's final score of 26. Further boosting the score was kicker Raphael Lansonneur who converted three tries, ensuring the Bears' lead. The Brown team's midfield partnership combined with solid defensive capabilities proved instrumental in the team coming out on top.

Looking ahead, the Brown Men's Rugby Team is scheduled to play again on Barlow Field at Fairfield University. Their next opponents will be American International College, a crucial encounter in maintaining their current impressive record of 2-0.

Brown Bears Men's Rugby Notches Third Victory in Liberty Conference 7's Tournament

The Brown University Men's Rugby team showcased their skill and calm under pressure in a gritty third match of the Liberty Conference 7's tournament. The Brown Bears commandingly defeated the American International College Yellow Jackets, a team known for its physicality and toughness, and who always brings their best against the Bears.

The dreary setting did not deter the Bears from scoring a noteworthy 12-0 lead by halftime. Closing the game with a final score of 29-7, the Bears maintained an undefeated tournament record of 3-0.

Tito Edjua and Kenyon Graham, both standouts during the tournament, each scored two tries. They were ably supported by performances from Cameron McAlpine and JT Dyer, who notched a try apiece. The keen eye and precision of Raphael Lansonneur were on full display, converting two tries for the team.

"I'm proud of how the team is performing. The players are putting our training into action and it shows," said head coach David Laflamme, emphasizing the importance of sustained effort by the team.

Looking ahead, the Bears are enthusiastic as they prepare to face Syracuse University at Barlow Field.

"We're going to focus on building on our momentum and executing our game plan," said speedster Kenyon Graham, reflecting on the team's preparations for the upcoming game.

Brown Bears Secure Spot in the Finals with Defeat of Syracuse in Liberty 7's Tournament

The Brown University Men's Rugby team seized a victory over Syracuse University and a spot in the finals of the Liberty Conference 7's tournament at Fairfield University on April 13.

In a testament to their prowess, the Bears displayed their domination with a final score of 26-5, maintaining their pristine tournament record at 4-0.

The weather played a role, with a cool, misty, and windy day setting the stage for what was an exciting display of rugby. The Brown Bears managed to shine despite the challenging conditions, and it was Kenyon Graham who emerged as the star of the match, scoring three tries, with support from teammates Tito Edjua and Henrique Gabriel who each added a try to the tally. Raphael Lansonneur was on form with his kicking game, nailing three successful conversions.

"We played to our strengths and executed our game plan," Bears burner Graham said.

The Bears will aim to assert their Liberty Conference supremacy as they face off against tournament hosts Fairfield University at Grauert Field.

Brown Bears Dominate Host Team in Liberty Conference 7's Tournament Championship

The Brown University Men's Rugby team were crowned champions at the Liberty conference 7's tournament on April 13, claiming a 21-0 victory over Fairfield University's Stags at Grauert Field.

The cool and cloudy weather did little to veer the enthusiasm of the Brown Bears as they powered their way to the title. The halftime score revealed a commendable start by the Bears, leading with 14 points while denying their opponent any score.

Brown's attack was led by Kenyon Graham, who scored two tries, and Tito Edjua, adding to the scoreboard with another try. Raphael Lansonneur was accurate with his kicks, securing all three conversions to bolster the Bears' tally. One key moment was when Graham left the Fairfield captain in his wake to close the first half with a try, setting the tone for Brown's dominance.

"This tournament win means a lot to us. It reflects the hard work we've put in this season," Brown coach David Laflamme remarked after the game. "The players executed the game plan well and their performance was reflected in the scores today."

Looking ahead, the Brown Bears are preparing to compete in the Ivy League 7's tournament at Mignone Stadium, hosted by Harvard University, on April 20. The anticipation is high as the team aims to carry forward the momentum from this commanding performance and improve upon its finish as Ivy runners-up in 2023.

B-SIDE

Brown Bears B-side Wins Over Dartmouth B's in Liberty Conference 7's Opener

The Brown Men's Rugby team kicked off its Liberty Conference 7's tournament campaign with a decisive win over the Dartmouth College b-side team at Fairfield University's Barlow Field Saturday.

Brown's B-side Bears held Dartmouth's Big Green scoreless to secure a 15-0 victory.

The conditions on the pitch were representative of a classic rugby day with cool mist and strong winds. Despite the challenging weather, Brown managed to take an early lead of 5-0 by halftime.

The Bears' offensive charge was powered by three try-scorers: Malcolm Grant, Craig Michalowski, and Toby Achleitner. The conversions and penalty kicks remained unfulfilled, and it was the strong defensive line that ensured the Bears' lead.

"Great way to start the tournament," Brown Men's Rugby coach said.

With this win, the Brown Bears start their record with a 1-0 in the early phases of the Liberty Conference 7's tournament.

Brown Men's Rugby is set to face Dartmouth again in the second round of the tournament.

Brown Bears B's Seize Second Victory in Liberty Conference 7's Tournament

The Brown Men's Rugby B-side claimed another impressive win against the Dartmouth Big Green B-side at the Liberty Conference 7's Tournament.

The dueling B-sides met at Fairfield University's Barlow Field, the misty and windy weather adding an extra layer of challenge for both teams.

The Brown Bears established an early lead, closing the first half at 19-0. This momentum carried throughout the game, culminating in a final score of 29-5, a result that elevated Brown's tournament record to 2-0.

Craig Michalowski and Toby Achleitner were the stars of the day for their team. Michalowski scored three tries, while Achleitner completed two impressive tries. James Horkan and Malcolm Grant rounded out the Browns' scoring efforts with crucial conversions.

Coach Ryan Grant celebrated his team's dominant start to the game, saying, "Got out to a quick start scoring early and never let up." Moreover, he pointed out the key contribution of Michalowski and Achleitner, commending their "strong, decisive carries."

The Brown Bears look to build on this success as they continue tournament play against Fairfield's B-side.

Brown Bears B-Side Third Triumph in Liberty Conference 7's Rugby

The Brown Men's Rugby B-Side team secured a 3rd tournament victory against Fairfield University B's in the Liberty Conference 7's tournament on April 13.

At Fairfield University's Barlow Field, Brown showcased a formidable defense and exceptional scoring capabilities. As the cool, misty, and windy weather set the stage for an intense contest, the Bears' halftime lead of 12-0 was a testament to their robust performance. The lead was boosted by tries from Oliver Bieling and a stunning hat trick from Toby Achleitner, who contributed significantly to the final score of 22-5 in favor of Brown.

Coordinated teamwork was paramount for the Bears to outmaneuver the Fairfield Stags. Malcolm Grant's conversion added to the scoreboard, prolonging Brown's lead.

Coach Ryan Grant commended the team's effort, saying "Continued to play stout defense against an athletic and physical Fairfield team."

The win maintains an undefeated streak for the Bears B-Side with a tournament record of 3-0 going into their next game, the B-side bracket final against the undefeated Iona University B-side.

Brown B's Seize Commanding Victory in Finals of Liberty 7's Tournament

The Brown Men's Rugby B-side team claimed a 39-0 victory over Iona University's B-side Gael's in the final of the Liberty Conference 7's tournament b-side bracket.

Played at Fairfield University's Grauert Field, the Bears dominated the game with a halftime lead of 22-0. Toby Achleitner's five tries alongside contributions from teammates Malcolm Grant and Craig Michalowski, who both added a try to the board, reaffirmed Brown's prowess on the field. Grant also secured 2 conversions, earning him a total of 9 points in the game.

Coach Ryan Grant commended his team for their masterful performance, noting, "Iona looked like a much bigger and potentially dominant team, but the boys refused to be intimidated and used our speed and defensive structure to starve them of possession. We were in control on both sides of the ball, from start to finish. I couldn't imagine a better finish to a superb performance in the tournament."

Toby's exceptional display, netting 5 tries in the game and 11 in the 4-game tournament underscored the tenacity and executing skill of the Bears.

The Brown Men's Rugby B-side team is looking ahead to the Ivy League 7's tournament, slated for April 20 at Harvard University.
